

Let's get a sense of proportion. Sinclair's decision sets a dangerous precedent and is much more of a threat to the nation's public airways than Janet Jackson could ever be.